EXAMINER'S AMENDMENT

1. An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

The application has been amended as follows:

2. This application is in condition for allowance except for the presence of claims 7-16 directed to an invention non-elected without traverse. Accordingly, claims 7-15 been cancelled.

3. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: None of the prior art of record teach the combination of an injection mold for forming golf balls having a first mold half with a plurality of cavities and a first pin with a first diameter and a first taper with a diameter smaller than the first diameter; a second mold half having a plurality of cavities and a first bushing for engagement with the first pin of the first mold assembly, the first bushing having a main cavity with a first diameter and a first cavity with a diameter smaller than the diameter of the main cavity; and a spring for exerting lateral force against the second mold half during disengagement of the first mold half from the second mold half. The closest prior art (Marshall et al 6,328,921) discloses opposed molds with tapered pins, a non-tapered bushing and two actuators (234) for pushing on the opposing sides of the top and bottom molds for relative movement of the mold plates during disassembly; however, the reference fails to disclose or suggest a
